MACBA
MUSEU
D'ART CONTEMPORANI
DE BARCELONA

MACBA Collection
New Acquisitions

Time as Matter
Exhibition: until 31 August 2009

Asier Mendizabal, Cinema, 1999.
Ajuntament de Barcelona Collection. Installation view, Museu d'Art Contemporani de Barcelona, 2008. Photo by Tony Coll. © Asier Mendizabal, 2009

MACBA
MUSEU
D'ART CONTEMPORANI
DE BARCELONA

320 works by eighty artists, 250 of them as yet unseen in the context of the MACBA Collection. Installations, paintings, sculptures, photographs collages... Time as another material in artistic production.

Outstanding works by Ignasi Aballí, Judith Barry, Constant, Dan Graham, Hans Haacke, Sanja Iveković, Joan Jonas, David Lamelas, Rita McBride, Asier Mendizabal, Matt Mullican, Deimantas Narkevicius, Palle Nielsen, Tere Recarens, Francesc Torres and Lawrence Weiner, among others.

This presentation lays emphasis on the change in paradigm brought about by the introduction of time as a feature that defines our relationship with the work of art. At the same time it examines how music, theatre and film transform the perception and thinking of art.

Capella MACBA

The Capella MACBA will host from 4 July, a new site-specific production of the Brazilian artist Renata Lucas, and an installation by French artists Michel François and Jean-Paul Jacquet (with the collaboration of Jordi Colomer, François Curlet, Ann Veronica Janssens, a.o.), La Ricarda.

MACBA Study Center
On the Margins of Art. Creation and Political Engagement
9 July – 27 September 2009

A wide-ranging vision of the different ways in which artists placed their creative abilities at the service of political activism over the second half of the twentieth century, including magazines, books, posters, flyers, postcards and other printed materials.

GUIDED TOURS
(included in the ticket price)

Weekdays at 6 pm
Saturdays at noon and 6 pm
Sundays and public holidays at noon

Available in English on Mondays and Thursdays

NITS DE MACBA
Thursdays and Fridays
From 8pm to 12pm
15/05/09 - 18/09/09

Museu d'Art Contemporani de Barcelona
Plaça dels Àngels, 1
08001 Barcelona

www.macba.cat

Communication sponsor:
LA VANGUARDIA